If the answer is "yes" to any of the questions above, identify the pertinent document(s) and provide a brief summary of the information that should be incorporated into the document.

2. Additional information: Identify any additional issues (other than that noted above or in the previous review) that should addressed or incorporated into the rule.

The rule currently explains that when recovery of amounts or portions of amounts that have been charged off the books and for which the bad debt deduction has been taken occurs, such amounts must be reported under the gross proceeds of sales or gross income. While there is no need to revise Rule 196 at this time, at such time this rule is revised the Department should consider addressing the effect of amounts retained by collection agencies have on the measure of tax or bad debt deduction/credit.

3. LISTING OF DOCUMENTS REVIEWED: The reviewer need identify only those documents that were not listed in the previous review of the rule(s). (Use "bullets" with any lists, and include documents discussed above. Citations to statutes, ancillary documents, and similar documents should include titles. Citations to Attorneys General Opinions (AGOs) and court, Board of Tax Appeals (BTA), and Appeals Division (WTD) decisions should be followed by a brief description (i.e., a phrase or sentence) of the pertinent issue(s).)

Statute(s) Implemented: None

Ancillary Documents (i.e., ETAs, PTBs, and ADs): None

Court Decisions: None

Board of Tax Appeals Decisions (BTAs): None

Administrative Decisions (e.g., WTDs):

Det. No. 97-219R, 17 WTD 162 explains that a seller who makes installment sales and collects an additional charge for the purpose of extinguishing the debt if the property is stolen or destroyed may not use the deduction for bad debts when such events actually occur. The bad debt deduction is available in those situations where the seller is unable to collect amounts that are due and owing to the seller. Because the additional charge forgives the remaining debt if the property is stolen or destroyed, there is no debt due or owed to the seller.

Attorney General's Opinions (AGOs): None

Other Documents (e.g., special notices or Tax Topic articles, statutes or regulations administered by other agencies or government entities, statutes, rules, or other documents that were reviewed but were not specifically relevant to the subject matter of the document being reviewed):
